KABC-TV Channel 7 News Report on Firm's Copper Pipe Lawsuits

On February 22, 2016, KABC-TV Channel 7 News' Eileen Frere reported on the firm's numerous lawsuits against homebuilders over copper pipe leaks. She features a plaintiff who described the damages to his Ladera Ranch home caused by the leaks and the reasons for joining the class action. To date, the firm has filed 14 lawsuits against builders in neighborhoods from South or North Orange County.

Firm Achieves Favorable Settlement for Client

Daily Journal's Verdicts & Settlement reported on our client Sherry Yates' personal injury case in the Orange County Superior Court. On March 25, 2014, 67-year-old Yates tripped over a concealed dark raised curb-stop between two closely parked vehicles when she was walking to a valet parked car at an Orange County hospital. She fractured her left shoulder and right knee and sustained a facial laceration/scar as a result. She underwent partial shoulder replacement surgery two days later and months of physical therapy. The case was settled in December 2015 for $350,000.
